Our Experience

Our Project Director, Jill, created Santa Academy to encourage children to fall in love with reading. Born from a conversation with her son, Jill has now turned Santa Academy into a global Christmas favourite, with multiple websites, an app and a novel on the way.

As part of Santa Academy, Jill, our Vocal Team and our team of awesome freelancers, have created an entire new world. Shops, emergency services, products – you name it, it had a brand.

In total, the team created 40+ brands, as well as 70+ characters and more!

Our Experience

HUDSONTM
OUTSOURCING

Our parent company, Hudson Outsourcing, needed a brand overhaul – and the Vocal Team, alongside a team of talented freelancers, were ready to get to work!

The company consists of six divisions, each with multiple services and software solutions within them. The new brand needed to reflect our values and innovative ideas, showing we're ready to work hard for our clients.

Our Experience

HEALTHCARE TENDERS™

FROM HUDSON OUTSOURCING

Healthcare Tenders source tenders on a daily basis from thousands of buyers across the whole UK. Created during the Covid-19 pandemic to fulfil the high demand for healthcare services, Healthcare Tenders was designed to fill a gap in the market.

For this project, the Vocal Team needed to create something appealing to businesses in the healthcare sector, as well as brand guidelines for internal use.

In just 12 months, this new branding took Healthcare Tenders to the next level. The number of unique website visitors more than doubled, increasing by 69% in total.

Our Experience

Part of the world of Santa Academy, the Lacus Herald is the place to keep up to date with all things Christmas. As the Lacus Island's daily newspaper, the Lacus Herald needed to maintain the same look and feel as the Santa Academy brand.

Jill, the Vocal Team and our awesome freelancers worked quickly and efficiently to create the brand's logo and brand guidelines, ensuring the magic of Christmas was upheld at all times.

Our Experience

Princess University was developed to bring cultural acceptance to the minds of children. The brand aspires to dispel negative stereotypes and biases about cultural groups, and to help them see from different perspectives within their world, through fun and educational activities.

The Vocal Team, alongside our talented freelancers, wanted to create a brand that reflected these values. As part of this project, a brand-new logo and brand guidelines were created, with Jill and the team at the help of every decision.

Our Experience

Hudson
Publishing Company

Hudson Publishing Company is a modern-day publishing house, publishing books, games, media and online resources.

Working with an external branding agent, the Vocal Team, with our team of talented freelancers, managed the creation of a new brand, from the initial idea through to the final product. Brand guidelines were also created for all internal materials, ensuring the brand's tone, voice and colour remained the same throughout.

How we work

Here's how we get the job done at Vocal...

1. Exploration and discovery

We'll start the project by assessing your brief and the needs of your company. This includes things such as business type, aspirations, target audience, competitors and your existing brand.

2. Idea generation

Next, it's time to generate ideas for your brand! We'll create a mood board, explore different concepts and develop mock ups to bring our ideas to life.

3. Pitch

Now you get your say! We'll pitch our ideas to you, explaining our choices and how they will work for your business.

4. Development and revisions

Throughout the entire process, you remain in control of your brand. We'll take your feedback and develop our ideas based on your suggestions.

5. Implementation

As soon as you give us the go ahead, we'll get to work on your new brand. Depending on the package you choose, we can produce a new logo, develop a style guide and create stationary options.
